UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT. HUSEAND AND WIFE-JOINT POWERS OF AT-

TORNEY. WASHINGTON, June 19, 1875. In the Supreme Court of the United States the following opinions have been given :-

No. 216. Sarah Ann Randall, appellant, vs. Louis Krieger.—Appeal from the Circui Court of the United States for the District of Minnesota. Mr. Justice Swayne delivered the opinion of the Court.

Mr. Justice Swayle delivered the opinion of the Court.

There is no controversy between the parties as to the facts. The appellant is the wiscow of John handall, decased, and cutins dower in the premises described in the bill. They were marred prior to the year lists, it died in July, 1839. From the time of their marriage until his death they fived in the State of New York, and she has slated continued to live there. He was solzed in fee ample of the land in which dower is elaimed, until he conveyed it away, as presently stated. On the lith of april, 1849, he and the comparison executed a power of attorney of that date to Wallium II. sandall, whereby the latter was authorized to sell and convey the real estate therein described. The description included the premises decribed in the lift. This instrument was executed in New York, according to the law of that there and was reflected in the fact of the law of that there are the fact and were and random, as he had been described in Ref. William of the law of that date, and the law of that date, conveyed the primes described in Lea III.

efficiently this Court. This case is conclusive of the employer us.

To the objection that such laws violate vested rights of property it has been forcedly answered that there can be no vested right to do wrong. Claims conjury to the lessue and equity cannot be regarded as of that character. Consent to remety the wrong is to he prosumed. The only right taken away is the right distancedly to repudiate an housest contract or conveyance to the injury of the other party. Even where no reme y could be had in the courts the vested right is usually unsatisfied with the slightest equity. (Cooley's Court. Jun. 378.)

INTERNAL REVENUE-WHOLESALE DEALERS. No. 679, Charles W. Sinck, Collector of Internal Revenue, plaintiff in error, vs. William W. Tucker et al.-in error to the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Massachusetts .- Mr. Justice Bradley delivered the opinion of the States for the District of Massachusetts,—Mr.

Januce Bradley delivered the option of the Court:—

This was a sult brought by the defendants in error against the plaintiff in error, who was a collector of internal revelue, to recover the amount of certain taxes and by the former under protest and alleged to have need the season of the Circuit Court, having fried the case without a jury, held the tax illegal and a reevery was had. The writ of error is brought by the vollector to reverse the judgment. The tax was assessed spanist the defendants in error as "wholesale dealers" under the seventy hinth section of the internal Revenue act of June 30, 1964, as anisolade by the act of July 13, 1866, its fatures, 11x.) It was agreed on the trial that if upon the lacks the Court should decline that the plaintiffs on the cause below were not table to the tax as wholesale dealers, but were liable to a tax of one-half the amount as commercial brakers under the four-centre clause of the seventy-chieft section, and under the himetymuch section, as amended, judgment should be renanderest, subject to the defondants' exceptions.

The statutory provisions referred to and on the construction of which the case principally depended, were expressed in the following terma—

First—Ast to wholesale dealers, the seventy-nists section as amended provided those—"Wholesale dealers, whose annual sales do not exceed $50,000, for every additional $1,000 in excess of $50,000 they shall pay $50; and if

The common treasurer is the control of the several corporations, their agents and servants. Between these corporations, their agents and servants. He was the common the common treasurer than the several corporations, their agents and servants. He was a control of the name of Upham, Tucker & Co., there were separate agreements, either in writing or by parol, that the plaintiffs should sell at the goods manufactured by send corporation for a fract percentage on the amount of seles, and the course of binness of the plaintiffs, under and in pursuance of this agreement, was as lost them they employed and paid. In this store was a counting room in which this business was transacted, and chambers where samples of goods manufactured by The corporations were kept. No goods they employed and paid. In this store was a counting room in which this business was transacted, and chambers where samples of goods manufactured by The corporations were kept. No goods they employed and paid. In this store was a counting room in which this business was transacted, and chambers where samples of goods manufactured by The corporations were kept. The corporations were kept to the corporations were kept to the corporations were kept to the corporations and their coates of humans would be corporations, and their coates of humans was also to manufactured by the corporations and their coates of humans was also to manufactured by the painting, and they could be a common to the corporation and they could be purchaser. The goods were then packed it the sales made by the manufacturing corporations, within the mean not of the taw, and Taird—If the sales were made by the plaintiffs ascentis of the manufacturing corporations, within the meaning of the law, they were not made at the place of manufacture in rat the principal office or place of business of the corporations, but were made at the store of the corporations, but were made at the store of the principal office of place of business. The Court overruled the motion and ordered judgment to be entired for the planning for the full amount claimed. Upon the lasts stated, and the additional one that the store and clerks were employed and the business carried on by the firm, the Court held the planning to the planning of the law.
